1. Dear Ted, I want you to know how much I appreciate you trying to follow Me, and follow Me you are, in your efforts to try to accomplish My directives and directions to you. I love you for publishing, writing and publishing My words to you, and sharing with the world that I want to speak, I am speaking, I am speaking loudly and clearly, to all who will let Me speak, who will take time with Me and learn My voice, and share Me with others.

2. I am not silent. I am not afar off. I am here and I am here with you as you begin to execute My instructions to you at a new level, with a greater clarity of heart and focus and understanding. I thank you for going to and involving the other giants that I have brought across your path, and established relationships with. More, many more, will come. One be with My workforce, My taskforce, of all colors and nationalities, that will be a part of birthing the schools you are birthing for Me.

3. You are trying hard and diligence takes a sharp curve upward now, in your quest to again fast and hear Me and be clear about the details and follow My instructions as I desire them to be followed, carried out, as a model, as an example, of what I am doing today, in the earth, and with all who will let Me.

4. I love you Ted. I love you reader/hearer, I love you deeply, I love you adoringly, I love with you with such respect and honor and patience, awaiting you to move toward Me more, I hope, I pray, I anticipate, I encourage, I woo, as I patiently wait, making Myself known and making the new things I am doing known, ever clearer and clearer, to you, to you, to you reader/hearer—participant please, spectator - please not. Move forth in the freedom that you have, which you now have, and seek freedom more, seek me more, seek Me more, seek Truth more. I will answer. We are one.

5. Schools, schools, schools—schools come and schools go, and some do not remain in the same places, nor operate in the same way for long periods. They are fluid, not stagnant. They are of Me and creating they are and where creativity ceases I am not in fullness. For I create, I am The Creator, I create and I create all the time.

6. Now get hold, embrace My creativity stream—flow—that part of Me that never stops creating, and continuously create with those who will create in consecration, consecration, in combination with My consecrated of networks and labels, and discombobulated not become.

7. I am moving and I am on the move. I am not stagnant. I am rampaging through thought-holds that have been so strong that they have depressed and isolated and emasculated. I am on the move. I am changing many things held true, held as truth for many, many years, decades, centuries. I am beginning to open My Word and My words to My body who will consecrate themselves in My quarters, My chambers, worshipping Me intimately, consistently, with arrogance afar off, not tainting their motives or actions, and I am sharing My creativity and revelation and revealings of Myself like never before.

8. The paradigms of the past as passé. Many today speak of the new economy. But they have not encountered My economy. And My economy reigns. My economy runs on love and flows on love , My blood between My body and My body, and My body will operate as I designed My body to operate.

9. No longer will My body stumble over the simplest of simple truths and swallow boulders and mountains of fabrications of constricting constrictors whose only desire is to maintain their own control of purse and prestige.

10. My time is now. My day is now. I am arising and I am arising My Mine like the world has never seen, and Ted, many will never see again, who close their eyes to My eyes and what I am now doing.

11. My hand sweeps, moving, raising, and when I move, nothing stops Me.

12. You are here for such a times as this. Tell them that they are here for such a time as this. Tell them they can partake of Me and participate in the greatest sweep of My hand in time, time, since time began. For yes, I am time. And time is within Me.

13. And soon I will have heartburn no more, for all will be settled. Prophesies filled, accounts—all settled.

14. I love you Ted, I love you pastor, preacher, teacher, My prophet and evangelist taking, sharing Me. I love you reader/hearer. I love you oh so lonesome. I love you perplexed and bewildered. I love you every one, and I have no favorites. I come, I call, and I come and call to all, day after day I come and call.

15. Open to Me and the new things I am doing and participate in My big adventure, which will require faith, diligence, perseverance, and yield many rewards, here, here, now, and eternally.

16. Blessed be the tie that binds—My love, My love, My love—for My Mine.

17. Graduate many into leadership who constrictors thought low of, thought nothing of, put down, held back, had no use for. Elevate them—those who are able, ready, willing, obedient, consecrated, questing after Me. Elevate them and hold none back ready.

18. Create, create, create, together, together, together, keys, keys, keys, openness, transparency, discernment, maturity, meekness, confront-ability in wisdom and skill, no wimps.

19. Encourage Adel and Winfield and Erasmus and my whole South African crew that you met. I will take you there soon. Encourage, bless and refresh them mightily in Me. Much grace, many miracles. My people—consecrated, consecrated, powerful. Power increases for My chosen, My chosen, My chosen who chose Me. Liberally am I coming to them and pouring out of Myself in creativity and blessing and relationships a many, many, not few, many. Werner waits, but Werner arises—very powerful man of Me.

20. Prayer arises and increases and leaders lead, more, more, more.

21. Spring forth from your first chapter and write My words given, and share and link and explain and clarify where needed, beneficial for those who need it. Clarify and expound and link and share My words and move forward, forth, move forth, today, now, and ready My book. Treat not lightly My request, directive to you to write each day and finish this before Christmas. To the printers get it and move today on My request.

22. My promises are true. Buildings come, arising out of nowhere. Students amass, beginning small and strengthening mightily, foundationed by Me, foundationed by Me, character built to last, and sustain every foe, combining My Mine in networks of power and skill and releasing freedom so My design is realized and enjoyed and fuels My body.

23. Complete, complete, complete your book and your coursework and late do not be. Arise, diligence comes forth greater, discipline yourself more and cry not for help in only what you must do. Help comes for what they only can do and must do and will do and enjoy doing.

24. Lovely, lovely are My Mine in My design, price paid, eating the fruit of diligence displayed, faith won, crowned, and not losing it to pride, arrogance or persuasive words of evil—doubt planted.

25. Enjoy the fruit of your pursuit, and impassion many, all along your path, all, impassion them, impassion them for Me, and I will be thankful, grateful, appreciative.

Thank you, thank you, thank you.
